Transportation of Students – Misbehavior on School Buses

For misbehavior on the school bus, a student may be denied this transportation. Bus students are entitled to be free from annoyance of disturbers, and as well, to be protected from injury which may result in consequence of the misconduct of a student during transportation. The school bus driver or officials of the bus company must report all cases of such serious misconduct to the school administration. Transportation may be denied the offender in the following manner:

The school Principal may deny such transportation up to a total of five days, until the student gives evidence of reform; and/or the Superintendent may do so up to a period of ten days. Such removal shall be immediately reported to the parent, in writing, and a copy of this letter shall be kept on file in the office of the Superintendent of Schools. No student shall be permanently excluded from riding on the school bus (when otherwise entitled to do so) except by order of the Board of Education.
