Personnel – Certified

4112.2

Certification

Every instructional employee shall be certified according to the provisions of applicable state law.

It is the responsibility of the employee to submit proof of appropriate certification to the school system prior to the commencement of employment with the Enfield Public Schools. The school system will maintain a record of the employee's credential as required by law.

It shall be the sole responsibility of the certified employee to see that his/her credentials for certification are completed before the date of expiration and to file the completed certification with the school system.

In the event of a lapse in certification, employee's status shall be immediately changed to "Substitute" (per diem) with no benefits, and his/her salary will be reduced to the current rate of pay for substitutes. If employee fails to obtain appropriate certification within 40 days s/he may be subject to termination of employment. If, within a reasonable period of time following a lapse in certification, employee provides evidence of appropriate certification, the employee's salary and benefits shall be reinstated, retroactive to the effective date of certification.

Note: On or July 1, 2018, to qualify for a professional educator certificate, an individual with a provisional educator certificate must hold a master's degree in an appropriate subject matter area, as determined by the State Board of Education, related to the teacher's certification endorsement area.

Distinguished Educator Designation

The Board of Education encourages certified staff to aspire and to achieve the designation of "Distinguished Educator."

To achieve this designation, the individual must hold a professional educator certificate, have taught successfully for at least five years, have advanced education in addition to a master's degree, that can include training in mentorship or coaching teachers, and meets the performance requirements established by the State Board of Education. Teachers, so designated, will be considered eligible to serve as mentors for the District's teacher education and mentoring program.
